PART I

The Star Spangled Banner

- "Kappa Kappa Psi" March Makovsky
In memoriam to "Boh", composer of the March, founder of Kappa Kappa Psi National Honorary band fraternity, one of the great symphonic band conductors of our time, and former head of music at Oklahoma A. & M. College.
- American Folk Rhapsody Arr. Grundman
Four American Folk Songs
- First Swedish Rhapsody Leidzen
Clarinet Solos by Haskell Lee Gaither
- Ballad for Evening Morrissey
Baritone Horn Solo by Dick Cameron
- Huldigungsmarsch (Triumphal March) Grieg
From the Suite "Sigurd The Crusader"
Arr. by Lake — Featuring Mary Lou Richardson, French Horn
- The "Triumphal March" is one of the most superb Marches in existence, equaled only by the Marches of Schubert, Wagner and Tschai-kowsky. It is one of the longest of Greig's compositions and one of the most stirring. The Piu Mosso (it's second part) is one of the most exquisitely tender episodes in all musical literature; a melody rivalling Schubert, the greatest of all melodists at his very best.
- Dream of Olwen Charles Williams
Arranged for Piano Solo and Band by Phillip Lang
Piano Solo played by Merriam Godfrey

PART II

- Them Basses Huffine
Featuring Charles Metcalf and Bill Mitchell, Basses
- "March" From First Suite in E Flat Holst
Pete Cameron, Trumpet
- Teddy Bears Picnic Bratton
Transcribed for Band by Paul Yoder
Featuring Martha Jane Clark, Bassoonist
- The Syncopated Clock Anderson
- "The Thunderer" March Sousa
- Listen to the Drummers Play Acton Ostling
Paraphrase on "The Mocking Bird"
- Sleigh Ride Anderson
Featuring Cella Wilkerson, Xylophone & Bells
